"You see us how you want to see us. In the simplest terms and most convenient definitions, what we found out is that we're all a brain, and an athlete, and a basketcase, and a princess, and a criminal, correct?"

The Breakfast Club

During our school years this class has come together, realizing that we are all pretty similar in many ways. We are all good at some things, not so good at others, and sometimes even a little bit crazy.

While we were here, we experienced some of the best times we will ever have in our lives. Hopefully, though the Class of '92 will go its separate ways, we will all have learned to appreciate the good times. As the immortal Ferris Bueller said, "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it."

This yearbook is a record of our friends, memories, and events of the past four years. It is a record of what was good and not so good, what was fun and not so fun, what we will always remember and what we chose to forget. Twenty years from now, when we have become whatever it is that we are to become, we may be cleaning out the attic and come across this forgotten book and remember the way we used to be in 1992. We'll look back upon our old friends and the carefree times we thought would last forever. We'll wonder when the arrogant, carefree kid disappeared and the responsible adult formed in its place. Maybe we'll wonder when we started to say some of the things we hated to hear our own parents saying. Then we'll close the book, maybe laugh a little, put it back in its place, and go on with our lives.

But for now, while we're still young, carefree, and arrogant; before we go out into the real world; while it's just us and the friends we feel will be there forever; as we look at this book each of us should ask ourselves . . . .

"Was it good for you?"

Mr. Paul Fleming
Principal, Wilmington High School 1992

Words From Mr. Fleming

Dear Members of the Class of 1992,

For the rest of your lives your yearbook will serve you as a repository for some of your most treasured memories.

The years will roll by bringing love, frustration, success, happiness, and inevitably some measure of pain and you will wonder how you have become what you are and at times why you must deal with your particular lot in life.

To sit in the face of that wonder with your book and reflect on the images and accomplishments of your high school years often eases many of the above anxieties and questions because memories have a way of becoming more pleasant as they move further and further into your past.

Wilmington High School feels it has prepared you well for the future. It has expected you to fulfill competitive, aesthetic, scholastic, and athletic standards and if you choose to you have met the challenges.

Your teachers have urged you to think and create and your counselors have advocated for you as you struggled to accommodate their wishes. Your principal, whose job it is to create the best possible learning environment with available resources, has tried his best to fulfill that responsibility.

Your parents provided you with a first class facility in tough economic times and supported you through so many difficult adventures as you tried one, then another, of the many avenues that must be explored if someone is to grow.

Never forget that they need your love every bit as much as you need theirs. The love I am speaking about, incidentally, is a willingness to see and seek "goodness" in another no matter what the circumstances of a relationship.

May the God of your choice bless all of you every day of your lives and may each of you do everything in your power to make certain the wind is always at your back.

Sincerely,

Paul T. Fleming
Principal

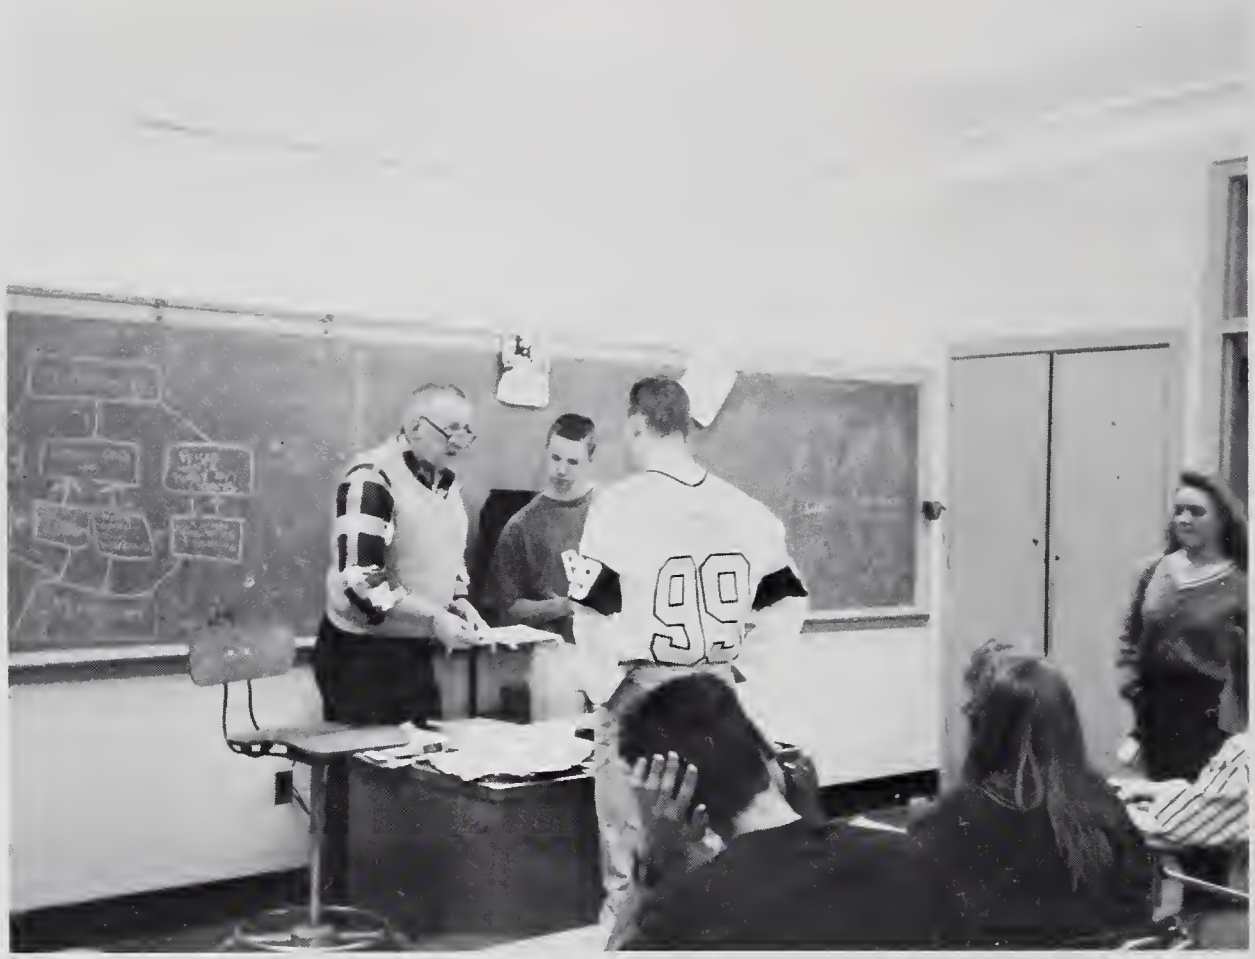
All you need is a cool headband to get the babes.

The Play's The Thing

TEACHER OF THE YEAR

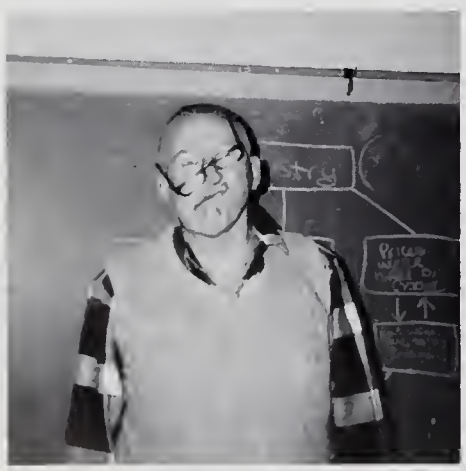


Mr. Dick Scanlon

The senior class is proud to have chosen Mr. Dick Scanlon as 1992's Teacher of the Year. This is no new honor for this veteran winner, but that should show students that Mr. Scanlon is an exceptional teacher. Mr. Scanlon is more than a teacher, and he is more than a coach, he is a friend and a counselor to all students. He sees kids as respectable people, and is never judgemental or condescending. Not many people of his ripe age can still understand and communicate with such social deviants as high school students but Dick, err, Mr. Scanlon is different. Students find his door and ears open any time they have a problem or just have a good joke or story to tell.

His popularity also comes from his love and appreciation for good practical jokes. In an environment with a very narrow margin on what is funny and what mandates I.S.S., Mr. Scanlon is a refreshing soul in the halls of W.H.S. He has maintained a sense of humor under difficult circumstances. Never has Mr. Scanlon missed an opportunity for a good joke.

Aside from his personal qualities, Mr. Scanlon is an excellent teacher. Teaching is a very difficult job. Trying to hold the attention of twenty-five high school students for more than five minutes is nearly impossible, but with his incredible sense of humor, enthusiasm, and hilarious stories to go with his lessons, there is never a dull moment in Mr. Scanlon's class. He conducts one of the classes to which students actually look forward.



The Class of 1992 would like to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Scanlon for all the help, fun, knowledge, and dedication he has given us throughout our four year sentence, um, our four years of high school that is!

Wilmington High School Alumni

While the graduates of 1992 are leaving the hallowed halls of WHS, many former graduates have remained. They work in various capacities but all share the experience of having first come to the high school as students.

If you were to look at past yearbooks you would learn a lot about WHS and some of the people you see every day. For example, Mr. Fay got his first taste of policy making as class president. When he graduated he was voted class optimist, a good trait for a superintendent today.

The WHS yearbook used to be called The Hourglass and is a permanent record of the life and times of its students. Do you know which of your teachers was a cheerleader and class treasurer? Which teacher was voted Hottest Temper in his class? Do you know whose hobby was basketweaving one-handed under water? Who has always been interested in "students who have an interest" but whose favorite subject was not always English? Can you guess who always enjoyed office machines? Or who always wanted to be a teacher but not in his present field?

Did you realize students used to walk the corridors in single file? Or that the course offerings are more diverse than they were when your teachers were students? Are you aware that the industrial arts area used to be a barn in an apple orchard? Each yearbook is a chronicle of its characters. How many of this year's graduates will someday walk these halls again?

The meaning of friendship is the sharing of laughter and tears,
We have been through these all in our many years.
For the person you are, I should describe a beautiful star,
So full of hope and life.
You've Guided me with your smile,
It never steered me wrong,
This is why my love for you will always burn strong.
Our friendship has no boundries
It will never end
This is why I consider you my greatest friend.
Now that our worlds are starting to drift apart,
I'll promise you this,
Rememberance is in the heart.
Stars are rays of glittering light,
Stars are the most beautiful things.
Stars hold both hope and life.
This is why you'll always be my shining star.

CLASS HISTORY

We arrived in September of 1988. We were two families from opposite ends of town, and on that day, we became one. We were there to witness the senior sit-in, and suffered through the "I" period. The girl's basketball, softball, and soccer teams all advanced to the state tournaments and the girl's field hockey team was the MVC Champ. But, we must have all been absent on the day of the Freshman-Senior Buddy Breakfast.

We returned the next year as sophomores to find some changes. There was no more "I" period and we had a homeroom period at the beginning of the day. Our Sophomore-Semi, I mean Half-Way Dance, was held at the Knights-oops, I mean the gym-oh no! I mean, the cafe on April 27. After much debate with the administration we were finally allowed to go to Riverside Park to end off the year.

We returned again as juniors. The boy's varsity soccer team became the North Sectional Champs. The boy's varsity hockey team and the girl's varsity field hockey team both advanced to state tournaments. On January 16, 1991, the Allied forces declared war on Iraq and our country wholeheartedly supported our troops to victory. On May 17 we held our prom at the Hillview Country Club and had a great time at Wingasheik the next day. Doug Lanzillo and Tara Gallant were King and Queen. We "sat in" out on the common to protest budget cuts, but I guess they weren't listening.

Which brings us to senior year. It started off with a bang. Laid-off teachers were brought back and classes were cut and divided to accommodate this change. We were told that the senior prom had to be earlier this year so we wouldn't have "problems" like they had last year. Homecoming went great and we chose Derrick Stokes and Katy Palm as King and Queen. Our football team defeated Tewksbury at the Thanksgiving Game, and on that day, hopefully, we started a new tradition. In March, our "92" Day Party was held at the Sons of Italy followed the next day by the "senior-skip day". On April 9, Mr. Joyce's English class performed "Simply Speaking-The Joy of Language" to an almost filled newly renovated Barrows Auditorium. As senior year came to a close, we held our senior prom at the Danversport Yacht Club where Brian Oxman and Kim Russo were named King and Queen. After another battle with the front offices, senior sign-out was changed back to May 15, and on that day we said good-bye to our friends and faculty remaining at WHS. Academic Convocation was held on June 5 and Graduation followed on June 7, 1992. On this day we said good-bye to our classmates and looked ahead to our mysterious futures. The class of 1992 withstood its share of problems and survived. We will always remain friends and we will never forget our 4-year sentence- I mean education - at the little prison- I mean school on Church Street.

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF MR. PAUL DOMIGAN.

Paul was unique. His sense of humor was one of his most engaging characteristics. He had a high regard for his students, a regard which manifested itself in the manner in which he cajoled them, joked with them, and prodded them to be better than they thought they could be. His treatment of the girls in his class as he complimented them on their appearances (especially when they wore dresses) and his insistence that they be treated with respect by male class members, was clear evidence of the value he placed in each individual. No day goes by when we are not reminded in some way of his candor, his ready wit, or his love of people. We miss him.

Math Department

As I was sitting in room 206 talking to my friends, an announcement came on. I thought that it was another announcement about someone breaking the rules. It wasn't. It was an announcement that one of the best teachers at Wilmington High School, Mr. Paul Domigan, had died. Mr. Domigan was a wonderful man. He was a teacher who showed he cared and wouldn't hesitate to tell you how he felt. He also loved to joke around with you. He was always there for all his students and loved us very much. The memories of Mr. Domigan will always be with the students of Wilmington High School.

A Wish For The Class Of 1992

It has been my pleasure to have been associated with you for the last 4 years. You have completed a challenging time in your lives. To gain all the wisdom needed for a successful life, 12 years of education is not enough. But hopefully you leave with the necessary tools to allow you to grow intellectually, either by formal education or other methods of your choice.

Best of luck in whatever endeavor you choose.

PEER LEADERSHIP

The Peer Leadership Program, in its seventh year at WHS, is involved in a number of outreach programs. The major focus for Peer Leaders is the sixth grade alcohol education program, where Peer Leaders meet with sixth grade students in small groups discussing alcohol facts, peer pressure, and decision making. Peer Leaders also assist in Project Charlie in the elementary schools and tutor students one-on-one in all schools in Wilmington. Also this year Peer Leaders met with eighth grade students to answer questions and concerns about the high school, presented skits based on peer pressure to elementary schools, and in conjunction with the Medical Careers Club, provided a meal once a month to the Bread and Roses shelter in Lawrence.

FOOTBALL

The Wildcat Football team led by captains Bryant Falzone, Bob Fleming, and Mike King just missed a birth in the Super Bowl. Just joking. Although their record didn't show it, everyday they practiced hard and never gave up. They had some tough losses during the season, but won the most important game vs. Tewksbury 32-28 on Thanksgiving Day.

Football Cheerleading

VARSITY

GET PSYCHED, LETS GO! The Wildcat Football Cheerleaders, led by captains Jodi Pellegrini and Kim Russo, had a memorable season. They had high mounts and exciting cheers thanks to their dedicated squad, coach Mrs. Cosman, and WILLIE THE WILDCAT. They pumped up the crowds, cheered the players on to victory, and boosted their spirits in defeat. They will especially remember Wilmington's VICTORY vs Tewksbury on Thanksgiving Day!

Seniors: Renee Barber, Kerri Devine, Jodi Pellegrini, Kim Russo, and Lesleigh Fraser.

VOLLEYBALL

This year's team put in a great effort against some tough teams. Captains Tammy Oakleaf and Lisa Sullivan helped keep the team alive along with other supporting seniors including Tina Errico and Shelly Armstrong as well as several juniors.

Boys Cross Country

Captains Derrick Stokes and Erik Engdahl and the rest of the Wilmington High School Cross Country Team would like to thank everyone for the support during the 1991 fall season. The seniors would especially like to thank Coach Kelley with whom they had the privilege of working for four years. The Cross Country Team went 2-8 during the season, with impressive victories over Billerica and Methuen. In league action, the team also had a strong performance against Lawrence. Although the record itself was not so impressive, the performance of this group should not be overlooked. The team had strong finishes in the Catholic Memorial Meet, finishing 11th out of 20 teams, and in the Class Meet where it placed 15th. The highlight of the season for the Wildcats was when senior co-captain Erik Engdahl was selected as a Merrimack Valley Conference All-Star. Erik ran well all year and topped off his strong season with a first place finish in his last duel meet ever. With a young team returning next fall, the Wildcats have a promising future ahead of them.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

For 32 years Coach Kelley has guided Wildcat teams.

Jenn G. and Jen C. ready to make their moves.

The Girls Cross Country team finished its season with a record of 3-9-0. It was a tough season but every member of the team tried hard and improved her individual time. Junior Leah Mazzoni was named an M. V. C. All-Star.

WILDCATS

Field Hockey Team Posts Winning Season.

The 1991 field hockey team ended the season 8-4-4. They advanced to the state tournament losing in the 1st round to Manchester, 2-1. The team had five seniors. Laura Bartnick (capt.), Jenn Rago (capt.), Leanne McConologue (capt.), Paula Lawson, and Alyson McCabe.

Leanne McConologue and Jenn Rago were selected All-Conference while Laura Bartnick and Keri Bowbly were selected All-Stars. Congratulations to Mrs. Wood who confused us all year with her name, Cassidy-Wood. (Which one?) We all would like to wish the best of luck to the 1992 Wildcat Field Hockey Team.

The Girls soccer team ended its season with a record of 7-9-2. The Wildcats were fairly successful, but team injuries prevented the Lady Cats from victories. Despite injuries and losses, the team pulled together and had an enjoyable season.

We'll always remember the good and bad times we went through that brought us closer together.

1992 BOYS VARSITY

Soccer

The 1992 Wildcats finished with a respectable 10-8-2 record. The defending MVC champs made a return appearance to the Division III State Tournament before being knocked out by their rival, North Reading High School. The 'Cats scrapped their way to second place in the Small School Division, despite injuries to senior starters Chris Armata and Tri-Captain Matt McManus. Tri-Captain John Lynch was MVP of the Merrick Valley Conference and John Martins and Tri-Captain Jim DeMarco were selected League All-Stars. The seniors would like to thank the parents for the dinners (and we really did go over Shane's house to watch Rocky!)

GOLF

FORE!! . . . . Well, not exactly. The golf team only had TWO wins but it was a nice thought. The team struggled through the season coming very close in every match played. Strong efforts from all the players made for another exciting season. The team could always count on ironhorses Jim Mederois, Brian Oxman, Kevin Camell, and Chris Crowell to help pull them through matches with strong consistent play, while coach Al Fessendon always helped with his advice and ideas. The 'Cats record was a disappointing 2-8.

The Varsity enjoyed a great season finishing with a record of 13-9. Even with the shocking season ending injury to junior center Greg Cardello, the Wildcats still managed to enjoy heart stopping victories against small school champ, Lawrence, and large school champ, Billerica. The last highlight of the season came when the team beat Boston Latin for the first State Tourney victory in some time.

The 1991-92 wrestling team equaled its stellar performance of last season under the coaching of Michael Nee. The diversity of Nee's coaching contributed to several outstanding performances.

The team's high point came at the Haverhill Holiday Invitational. The team finished fifth overall with senior co-captains Mark McCullom and Jim Levesque taking first at 160's and third at 189's respectively. Also placing second were junior Shane DeMaggio at 145's and sophomore Brian Tildsley at 112's. Another high point of the season was when DeMaggio and McCullom both placed in the Division II North Sectionals. DeMaggio placed second and McCullom sixth, qualifying both for the State Tournament.

WINTER TRACK

The 1991-92 boy's track team improved its record by two more wins than last year. The team was led by captains Brian McCarthy, Bob Conchiglia, and Dave Lanzillo. Other standouts were seniors Bob Fleming, Doug Lanzillo, Steve "BB" McGlinchey, and Gerard Forgett. The track team participated in the annual State Relay Meet where they took fourth place as a team. The relay team of Dan Ballou, Tom Aprile, Tom Kilillea, and Dennis Godin won the class C title. Rick Blizzard also participated in the State's. The seniors would like to thank Mr. Cripps and Mr. Kelley for their hard work during the season.

The girls winter track team had a great season led by senior co-captains Jennifer Caira, distance runner, and Jennifer Gustafson, hurdler/sprinter. Seniors Tammy Oakleaf and Kristen Lubanski greatly furthered the team's efforts with their superior shot putting. Senior Daneen Martin displayed a good effort as a sprinter. The whole team put forth a super effort and had a wonderful season.

GIRLS TRACK

Captains Jen Rago, Jen Gustafson, and Jen Caira

A thrilling come from behind win in the final relay highlighted the girls lone victory against Lawrence High School. Numbers and youth hampered the squad's efforts against the veteran teams in the Valley. The hurdles, jumps, and throws were the areas in which the girls were most competitive. Some fine work was done by Jessica Harrison in the sprints, Leah Mazzoni and Jen Caira in the distances, and Jen Rago in the javelin. Jen Rago won her third successive Class C Championship, as well as first place in both the Andover Boosters Meet and the League Championship Meet in the Northern Area.

BOYS TRACK

Captains John Lynch and Rick Blizzard.

A 0 and 7 record in dual meet competition was not indicative of the quality of the youthful Wildcat team. Individually and collectively the team did exceptionally well in major meet competition. A coterie of talented sprinters and hurdlers excelled in the state relay Class C Championship and Northern Area Championship. Senior John Lynch, along with Rick Blizzard, Tom Zaya, Dennis Godin, and Dan Ballou were instrumental in establishing a Class C relay record, and in winning the Class C four by four hundred meter championship. Freshmen and sophomores were mainstays of the distance events and the efforts of Eric Flynn in the javelin were rewarded with a second and third in the Northern Area League and Class C Championship.

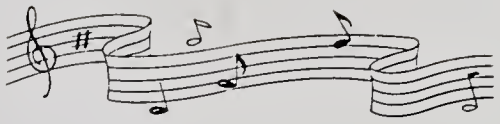
The Wilmington High School Band and Colorguard enjoyed a great season. They performed a halftime show which started off with a Disney Melody followed by Tail Spin, a drum feature, and finished with Voices That Care. Cheers were always heard when the band marched through the doors of the now famous castle. The best band in the Merrimack Valley was led by drum majors Kerry Cunio and Tammy Oakleaf, as well as director Ms. Mette.



B

Twenty years from now as the class of '92 groups in the beautifully decorated High School cafeteria, after greeting all of the parents whom Paul T. has invited, and after taking a breath lizer, we notice how the class of 1992 has changed and what has become of us.

What first catches our eye is the old WHS Football team who all showed up at the reunion in new designer blazers that were mysteriously donated to the Varsity Club Athletic Fur

Kevin Aberle has married Renee Barber, of course, and they now live happily on Carter Lane with their ten sets of twins.
Fabienne Aizac, Kristen DeStefano, and a few other artists from WHS can now be found painting nude male models at the Monserrat Art School.
Robert Anderson is still free-styling on his bike in the tennis courts.
Brian Angus was recruited by Guns-n-Roses as the new Axl Rose.
Chris Armata can still be seen competing on back episodes of STUDS, yet still hasn't received one heart.
Lori Armstrong was the first female ever to join a monastery but was booted out for failing her vow of silence.
Michelle Armstrong has progressed in height and is now dating Andre the Giant.
Jaylene Ashdown has finally gotten the recognition she deserves and was voted Queen of the Reunion.
Kimberly Ashdown and Jenn Sbano are now coaching basketball cheerleading with the support of assistant coach Sally Cosman.
Claudine Auger was the first person to clog on the Johnny Carson show.
Domenic Avellino, after a long career of selling "Soul Glow" door to door, has been voted People Magazine's Sexiest Man of the Year.
Donald Barker has a Harley and leads the Hell's Angels in a pair of leather chaps.
Laura Bartnick is now the chairwoman of the "Wanna Be" Task Force.
Sheryl Berg has written a book entitled "Don't Date Men with the First Name of Dan".
Lorraine Bimbo has patented an ozone layer saving hairspray.
Susan Bimbo will still be wondering if she likes Mike or Kevin.
Ken Blowers is now the National Troup Leader of the Boy Scouts of America.
Anthony Bonarrigo now drives a beat-up Pinto.
No one is really sure if Brian Bourque ever graduated WHS and his where-a-bouts are unknown.
Marc Bruno is married to a former teacher and they are now expecting their 8th child.
Jenn Caira is a guidance counselor at WHS.
Robert Carbone is a regular on Saturday Night Live and owns his own horse named Babieca.
Millie Anne Cavanaugh has overthrown all authority at WHS and now has total power of everything.
Scott Chisholm is still nothing after all these years.
After being forcibly admitted by Mark McCullom, Charlene Ciotti is now relaxing comfortably in Bellview State Mental Institution.
Kelly Clancy has had her built in megaphone surgically removed.
Julie Coffil is now on the Jenny Craig diet because after gaining 100 lbs she is now 25 lbs overweight.
Bob Conchiglia is living at Graceland with his dad.
Kerry Cunio and Daneen Martin are world-renowned nurses at Mass General.
Greg Danielius and his friends are currently in prison for attempting to blow up the past three reunions.
Jim DeMarco is still doing math problems with his dad.
Gina DeSantis is now chasing Matt McManus all over the world . . . but if she looked hard enough she would find him appearing in "Life Goes On" on Sundays.
Kerri DeVine was kidnapped from the reunion at approximately 10:15 pm by an unknown commando parachuting out of a helicopter. Her coordinates are now unknown.
Elizabeth Devlin and Diane McInnis own their own day care center.
Jeff DePerri is touring the U.S. with his band.
Rachael Doucette has married and divorced Jason seven times.
Mike Dubois' prophecy will be read next year if he ever graduates.
Tom Ducey is the president of AA.
Cristin Duggan is the center for the Women's Olympic Basketball Team.
Richard Dunn is a famous beach volleyball player.
Erik Engdahl owns his own dating service and his slogan is, "Wanna hook up?"
Bryant Falzone got a Christmas bonus and was able to buy a round of Chapstick for his whole family.
Richard Feeney is still trying to graduate from WHS because he hasn't served out all of his detentions yet.
Kevin Ferrari has replaced Sy Sperling as, not only a member, but Hair Club president.
Juliann Fields is now happily married to Bob.
Bob Fleming drives the unmarked cars through Hathoway Acres on Halloween.
Eric Flynn has not yet found anyone worthy of his ego but he has a bike pump with a head adaptor and is still looking for applicants.
Gerard Forgett is the heavyweight champion of the world.
Lesleigh Fraser has gotten one year's membership to Elite Tanning and is hoping, someday, to be as dark as Kim.
Tara Gallant has maxed out all of her credit cards and is now rummaging through Salvation Army boxes.
Dawn Ganno is the covergirl for the Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue.
Howard Gilhooley is a driving instructor, but so far none of his students have graduated because they have all died within the first month of on the road training.
Thomas Gilson is now a gym teacher.
Dan Godin is still being chased by Mr. Young on route 93.
Eric Goodridge is a roadie for Metallica.
Angela Gosse and Kristen Lubanski are still trying to finish their calculus finals.
Jeff Gould is starring in the new Batman movie.
Laurel Graham and Michelle Savoie are game show hosts.
Derek Gray is holding exorcisms to try and remove Satan from his mother's body.
Jen Gustafson is on a secluded farm interacting only with horses.
Michael Haas is now wearing tight, pink shorts and short pink ties after spending so much time in I.S.S. with Mr. Nee.
Jen Hanson has had numerous appearances on Miami Vice and is now married to Don Johnson.
Keith Hobbs is in Dunkin Donuts with the rest of the cops.
Lawman Johnson is Chief of Security at Filenes.
Tina Kelly is married to a Mexican flea market worker.
Pat Kelly is fighting with Jenn about who's going to pay.

Tino Kimly became a millionaire following in the footsteps of Tom Voo.
Mike King was drafted by the Patriots.
Debbie Koczen has set up a slide projector at the reunion and is showing choice slides of her and Freddy through the years.

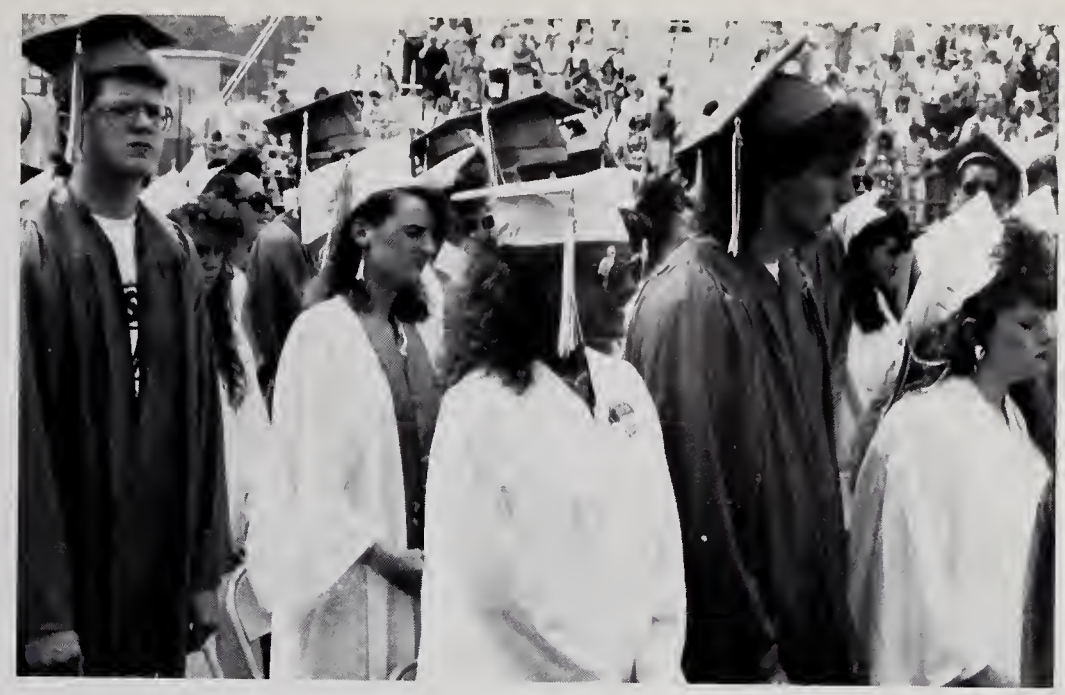
CONVOCATION AND GRADUATION



The traditional turning of the tassels.

Graduation was held on Sunday, June 7, 1992, at two o'clock. Enjoying a balmy early summer day, in eighty degree temperatures, the Class of 1992 received their diplomas. Marshalls Derrick Stokes and Lori Armstrong led the class onto the field. Valedictorian Angela Gosse conducted the WHS band in an original musical composition as part of her valedictory speech. Salutatorian Jodi Pellegrini and Honor Essayist Kristen Lubanski also addressed the crowd as emotions ran high.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1992

I, Fabienne Aizac, leave my front tie shoes to Joe Accardi; my Hollywood gum to Jill, Brandee, & Julie; my friendship to Nicole Lamirande; and my French to Greg Maiella.

I, Chris Armata, leave Brian Pondelli enough credits to graduate.

I, Lori Armstrong, leave my ear-piercing but beautiful voice to echo through the hallowed halls of Wilmington High.

I, Kim Ashdown, leave all my extra credits to my boyfriend, Brian Pondelli; he needs all he can get.

I, Claudine Auger, leave my clogging shoes to my sister, Anne-Marie, and anyone else who wants to clog with them at a dance.

I, Donnie Barker, leave my 2300 paged anthology from English class to anyone who wants a hernia.

I, Laura Bartnick, leave my karate ability to Karen Semonelli, to fight off all "wanna-be's".

I, Sheryl Berg, leave Mr. Melhado all my life stories.

I, Debbie Berube, leave my sister, Diane, the stamina to endure the trials and tribulations of WHS.

I, Susan Bimbo, leave my unique last name to any chick wild enough to live up to it!!

I, Jennifer Caira, leave the culture section of my Spanish notebook to my sister, Angela.

I, Rob Carbone, leave Wilmington High School knowing I gave my teachers some gray hair.

I, Millie Cavanaugh, leave all the stress and hassles of WHS to anyone who can handle them-I know I couldn't.

I, Scott Chisholm, leave my outstanding hockey ability to Scot McKenzie, and anyone else stupid enough to take it.

I, Kelly Clancy, leave WHS knowing everybody thinks I'm a dumb blonde!!!

I, Julie Coffill, leave my 7th period bathroom pass to Russell Allard.

I, Bob Conchiglia, leave Tom Kilillea an extra chia pet in case he ever goes bald.

I, Jim DeMarco, leave all the money I lost at the track, playing Scat and Acey Duecy to anyone who wants to get rich quick.

I, Kerri Devine, leave Pam Barron a net and all my skim milk so she has the strength to hold it, and also leave my brother home alone without any normal person to talk to

I, Jeff DiPerri, leave Mrs. Aldrich happily behind.

We, Cristin Duggan and Shelly Armstrong, leave the Peanuts Dance to Greg Cardello, and to Carolyn Hurley we leave better luck for next year!!

I, Ronda Dwan, leave WHS with a warning to all the teachers—I have a sister!

I, Erik Engdahl, leave EYCING to Rick Blizzard.

I, Tina Errico, leave hoping my sister Susan and her boyfriend get over their fear of strawberries.

I, Kevin Ferrari, leave a great deal of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Domigan.

I, Juliann Fields, leave my Pebbles-Do to Laura Vivona.

I, Bob Fleming, leave "LOADED"!

I, Eric Flynn, leave my ego to anyone who thinks they are worthy of it.

I, Lesleigh Fraser, shed my black skin to all the wanna be's who want it. SEE YA AND I WOULDN'T WANT TO BE YA!!!

I, Tara Gallant, leave my Bay Bank card to Jen Splaine and Kim White and hopefully they'll use it as well as I did.

I, Dawn Ganno, leave all my extra credits to Brian Pondelli.

I, Dan Godin, leave Dennis, Rick, and Brendan "THE FUD BOWLING BALL", "NAMTOP", "DUFF", AND SOME "101".

I, Angela Gosse, leave my baby sister, Julie, my study skills.

I, Jennifer Gustafson, leave hurdles to Jill, Lee, and Jenna; G.S. to Shannon; the sousaphone to Julie G.; and the school to my sisters. (Good Luck.)

I, Jennifer Hansen, and I, Debbie Berube, leave the Hansen & Berube Law Firm to Mr. Joyce, should he need any legal advice.

I, Lawman Johnson, leave my unlimited Filenes charge account to any underclassman that strives to be best dressed.

I, Tina Kelly, leave my girl scout cookie stealing sign to anyone who can steal the sign in the snow.

I, Debbie Koczen, leave all of my unfinished calculus tests to the underclassmen to they can have something to start next year's bonfire with.

I, Dave Lanzillo, leave Mr. Scanlon my middle finger because it is straight.

I, Doug Lanzillo, leave my soccer cleats to anyone who can fill them. Even after four years, they're still practically brand new.

I, Paula Lawson, and I, Alyson McCabe, leave Mrs. Bas' countdown to anyone who wants to get out as much as we did.

We, Kristen Lubanski, Tammy Oakleaf, and Kerry Cunio, leave the sax section of jazz band knowing they can't survive without us.

We, Stacy LaCorcia, Liane McAuliffe, and Gina DeSantis, leave a tube of Bengay to any junior girl planning to go to Cancun next year. Beware of the spanky men on the buses!!!

I, Diana Malenchini, leave the Purple Passions to Mark and Greg, and my perfect attendance to Stephanie O'Donoghue.

I, Stephen Manfiote, leave my computer in Mrs. Bell's class to someone who can put it to use.

I, Jennifer Marchillo, leave Kristen Hall all the half-read books that I never finished in reading class.

I, Mark McCullom, leave to the wrestling team more fun-filled years with vice-principal wanna-be Michael Nee, a man who's back never touched the mat.

I, Chris McBride, leave all my extra credits to Brian Pondelli.

I, John McCabe, leave the key to Jay Early.

I, Brian McCarthy, leave FUD some Jiffy Pop and Potman a spot in the next Stevie Wonder/Ray Charles video.

I, Leanne McConologue, leave Lynette Berger without a 9 partner in Field Hockey.

We, Dan McCue and Jeff Gould, leave Miss Bocchino, Finally!

I, Stephen McGlinchey, leave my big butt raggings to Dave Oatis.

I, Matt McManus, leave Jay Early all of the wins I've stolen from him the last two years, and also a case of fresh strawberries and a gallon of whipped cream to my brother Jeff.

I, Rob Monteiro, leave the office button in Mrs. Bertini's room to anyone who wants to see her flip out.

I, Stacie Murphy, leave my list of 101 excuses of why I didn't go to class, and why I can't go to detention, to anyone who has the courage to tell Mr. Woods.

I, Bryan Nigro, leave my barely passing grades to Brian Bourque for next year.

I, Stacy Ouellette, leave my psychology notes to Nicole Lamirande, because she is never in to get them the first time.

I, Brian Oxman, leave driving lessons to Alyssa Georgellis.

I, Katy Palm, leave the elevator key to anyone too lazy to use the stairs.

I, Elaine Paolini, leave a long title of Ms. Aldrich's favorite student to a long year to my long friend Erika Anderson.

I, Jodi Pellegrini, leave all they happy memories and fun times in cheerleading to next year's squad.

I, Shawn Perreault, leave Erika, Matt, Paula, and Val, Lucci's to do with as they wish.

I, Jenn Rago, leave (Penelope) my Javelin to Jeanna and Denise. P.S. Don't forget to kiss Penelope for good luck!

I, Michelle Ribas, leave my excellent skills in gymnastics to Bonnie. God knows you need it!!!

I, Paul Rich, leave my 12-year old girlfriend to anyone desperate enough for her.

I, Kim Russo, leave John O'Reilly to Nancy Pote and Jackie Holloway, since they kiss the ground he walks on anyway!

I, Heather Rutter, leave Julie Kelley my attitude.

I, Kristen Sardynski, leave Tommy Zaya Dr. Ruth's new book, "How to Handle Women".

I, Jennifer Sbano, leave with Dobilini knowing my sister, Netta, will still be stuck here thinking about him.

I, Michele Semonelli, leave one of my bras so that the underclassmen have something to carry their books in next year.

I, Tom Sheehan, will leave the High School June 7th knowing we'll all return that night complaining that we have nothing to do.

I, Taylor Stillman, leave all the "wanna-be's" belts so they stop drooping.

I, Peter Stratos, leave my ability to back out of a parking spot to Matt Corozza and Jeff Berg.

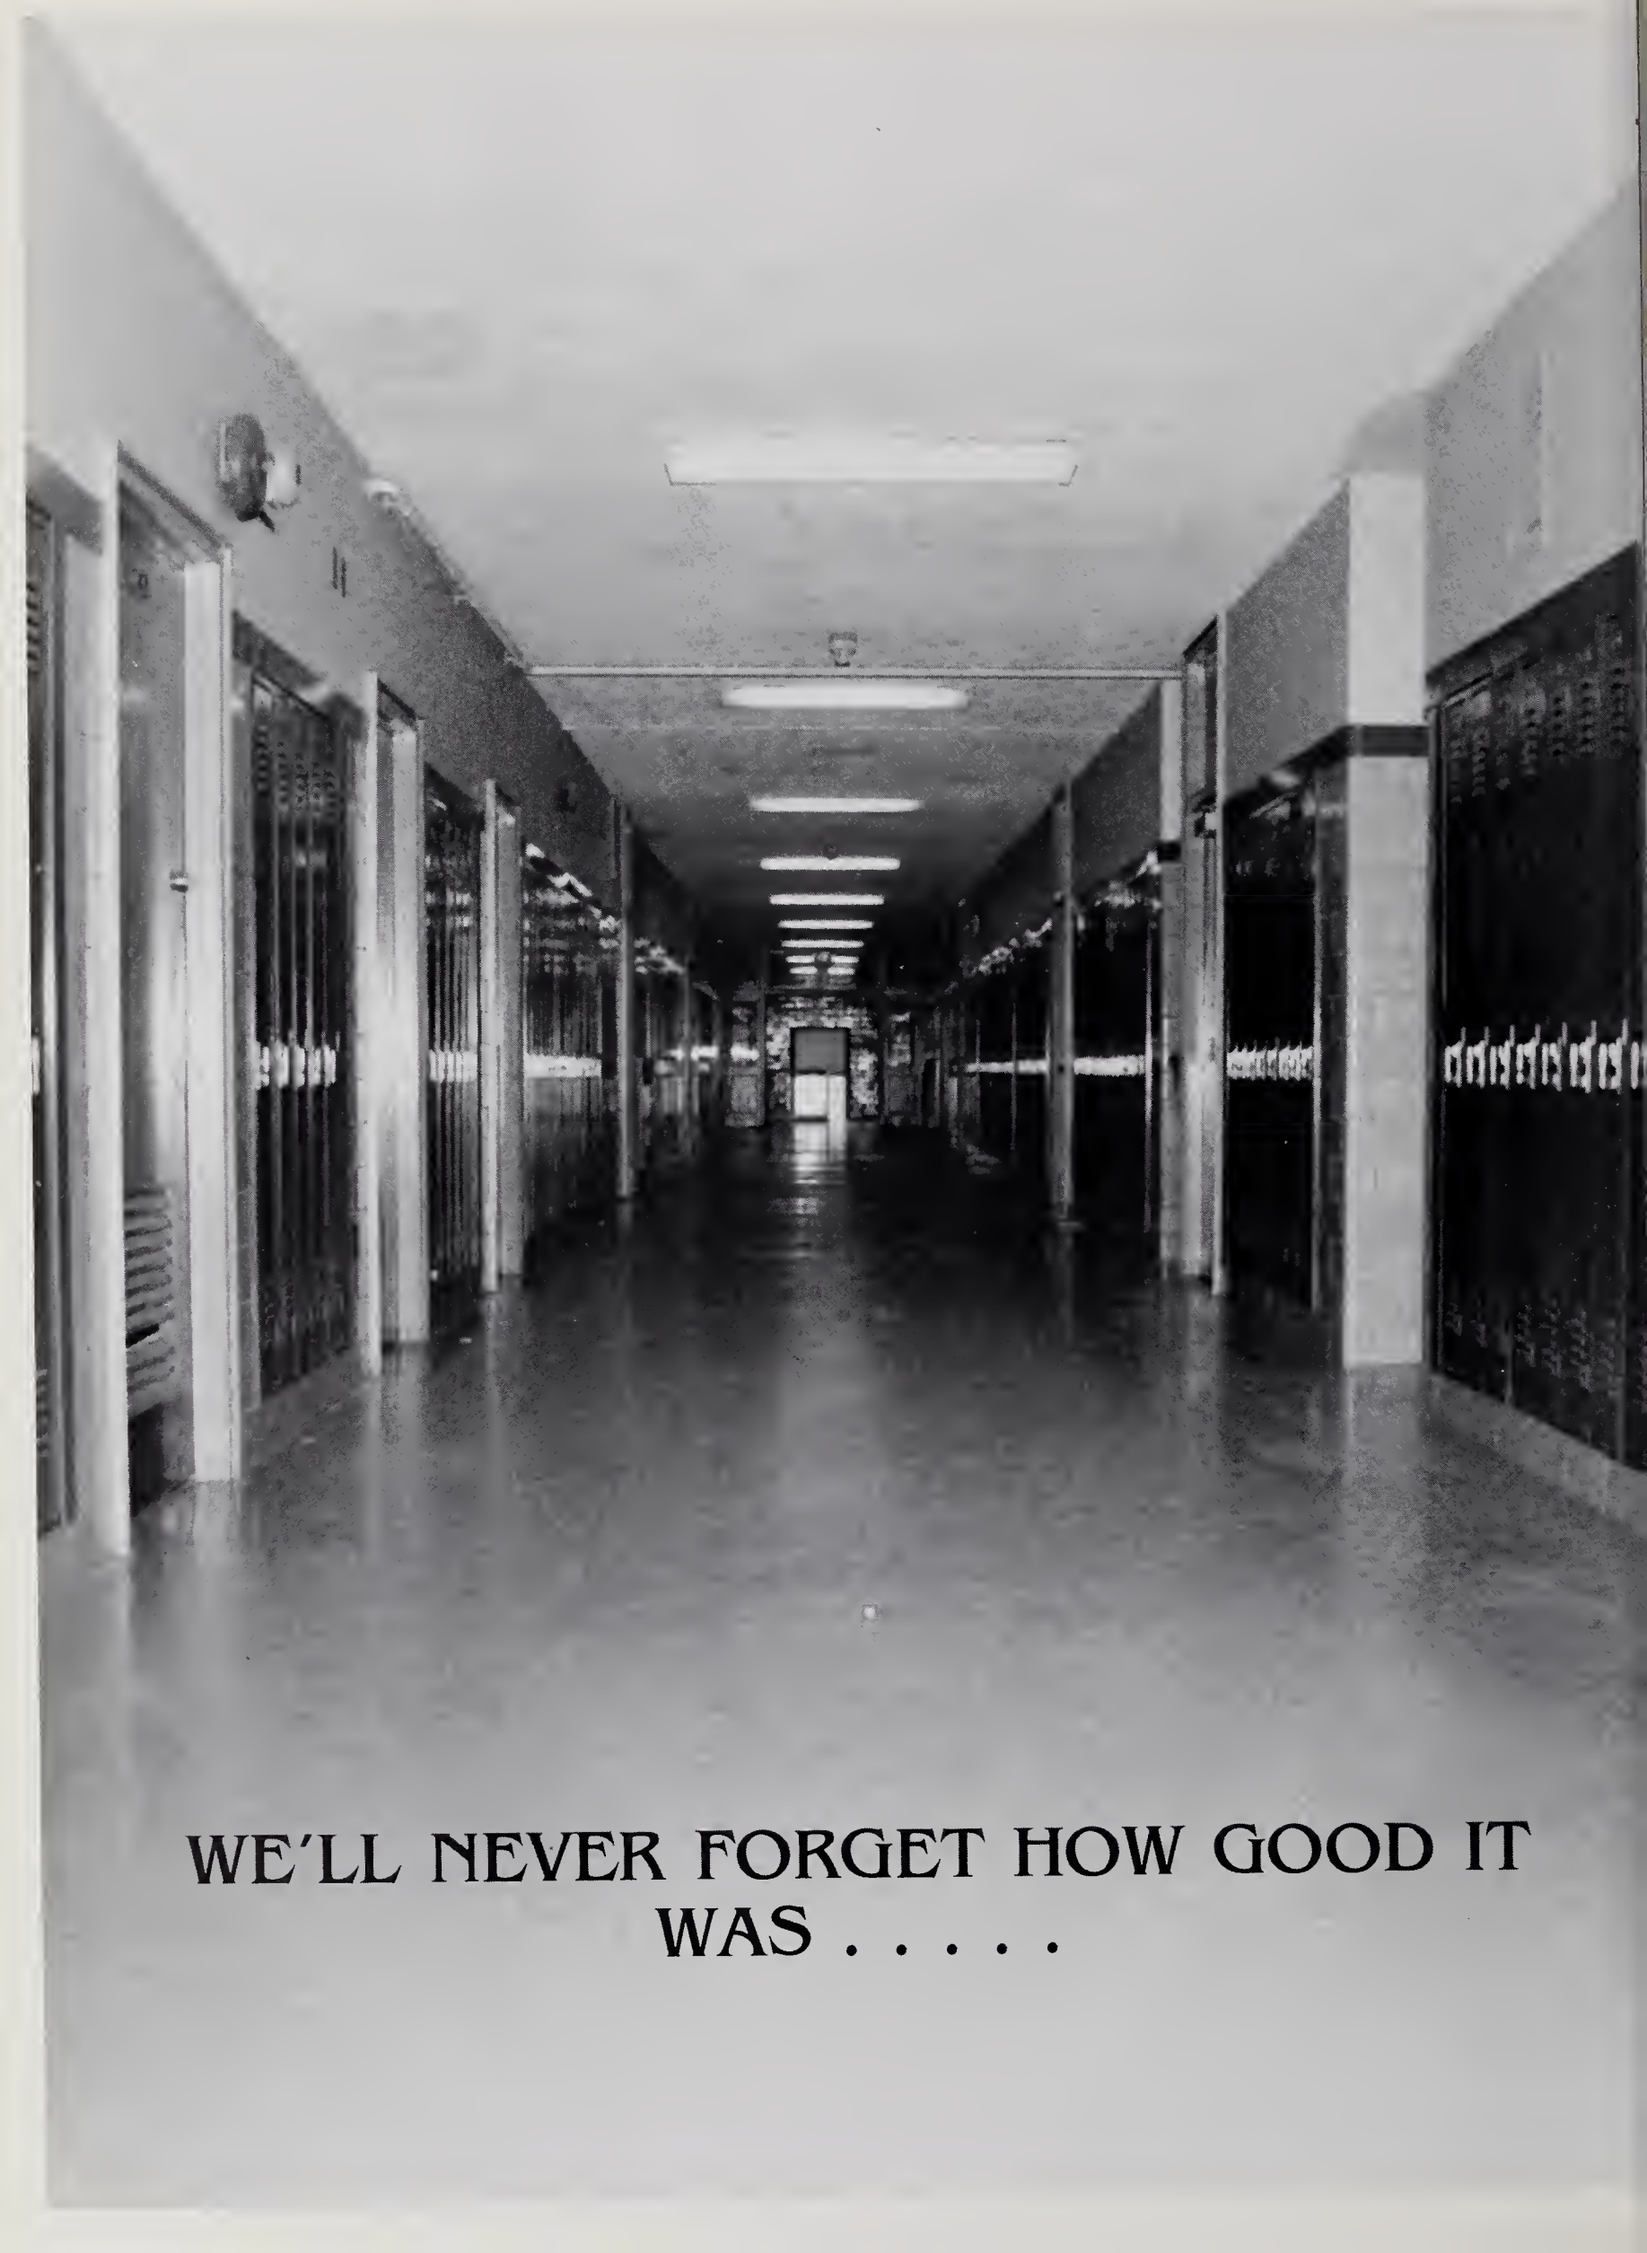
I, Lisa Sullivan, leave the volleyball team better luck next year and I leave my rings at home.

I, Angelina Stomboli, leave my cuteness to Cathy Carter.

I, Michelle Vigliotti, leave my best friend Steve.

I, Marissa Volpe, leave my nickname, Mrs. Poole, to my sister, Jenna, Little Poole, and I also leave the Leaf Possee to Becky, Joy, and Riba.

I, Theresa Woods, leave my outstanding pool skills to Jaqui Dileo and Kathy Yarwood.



WE'LL NEVER FORGET HOW GOOD IT WAS . . . . .
